

NCPTA Special Education Inclusion Committee

SATURDAY
6 MARCH
2021
10:00 A.M. TO 12.30 P.M.

INCLUSION for ALL VIRTUAL TOWN HALL

Breakout Sessions:

MAKING THE CONNECTION: COMMUNICATION IS KEY

by Beverly Robert:

TIPS FOR HELPING STUDENTS ON THE AUTISM SPECTRUM IN A REMOTE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

by Dr. Jill Howard:

LEAST RESTRICTIVE ENVIRONMENT: WHAT IT MEANS FOR ALL

by Dr. Kristin Bell & Wendy Vavrousek

REGISTER TODAY

<http://bit.ly/NCPTASpecEdIncTownHallMarch6>

You must register to receive the event's Zoom link and other updates about the event including pre-registration for breakout sessions.

Do You Have Any Further Questions About the Event?
If So, Then Please Write to specialeducation@ncpta.org.

North Carolina
PTA
everychild.onevoice.®

Keynote Speaker
Doreen Byrd

Senior Parent Educator at Exceptional Children's Assistance Center (ECAC)

Beverly Robert

Family Engagement Manager, NCSIP Coordinator at Exceptional Children's Assistance Center (ECAC)

Dr. Jill Howard,

Child and Adolescent Psychologist; Director of Early Intervention Services for the Duke Center for Autism and Brain Development

Dr. Kristin Bell

Executive Director for Exceptional Children's Programs with Durham Public

Wendy Vavrousek

Exceptional Children's Director for Elementary Schools with Durham

Guest MC:

Ryan Jor El

Author, Speaker, Host, Co-Host
"Trending" on WCCB Charlotte

Reg. Deadline
March 3rd

Interested in Joining NCPTA? Click Here to Join